As the fiery battle rages around you, the captain's voice crackles from the radio: "Your orders, sir?"

In BATTALION COMMANDER, you are a lieutenant colonel in charge of an entire armored battalion. You must issue swift and decisive commands because this is one fast-moving tactical wargame. The fighting occurs in real time!

Your forces are equipped with a complete arsenal of modern vehicles and weapons such as tanks, APCs, howitzers, heavy mortars, and anti-tank missiles. You can select the nationality of ground forces — U.S., Soviet or Chinese — for either your side or the computer's. Relative strengths can also be adjusted to vary the difficulty of this solitaire game. And if you get bored with the scenery, just choose another battleground from the 40 terrain maps available.

Five scenarios are provided to pit your military prowess against the computer's. Do you have what it takes to meet this challenge?

If you do, go ahead and give the captain your orders. The outcome of battle rests on you...sir!

In the hypothetical war that is NORWAY 1985, the summer of '85 saw the effortless occupation of Norway by armored Soviet forces. But with the onset of winter, their early success may prove to be quite temporary.

With frigid nights freezing the oil in armored vehicles and the harsh terrain impeding daytime movement, the Soviet superiority in armor is effectively negated. Now, NATO has the opening it needs to launch a counterattack.

As the NATO general, you command a new breed of fighting men: Infantry and mortar infantry on skis. Like darting ghosts, they can attack Soviet positions to regain control of towns and airbases.

If you're the Russian commander, you must fight fire with fire by deploying your own ski troops. Artillery, rocket fire and tactical air strikes are also at your disposal.

Like the other games in the "Superpowers" series, NORWAY 1985 boasts beautiful color graphics, a sophisticated movement system, and realistic combat rules.

During solitaire play, the computer can direct either side.

U.S.A.A.F.™ simulates the daylight bombing of Nazi Germany by the United States Army Air Force. The Campaign Game lets you play the entire 2-year strategic air war on a day-by-day basis. (Shorter games are also provided.)

As the American General, you assign the 8th and 15th Air Forces to fly daily raids over 91 possible targets and bomb 12 types of Nazi industries. You determine the take-off time, altitude, and number and types of planes per mission. The computer assesses combat losses daily, down to individual bombers and escorts.

As the German player, you allocate flak guns among your cities and deploy the Luftwaffe's fighters from 96 airfields. The strategic limitation of aviation gas adds to your headaches.

Weapons become available at the same times they were actually developed in the war (although German jet production can be accelerated). Both sides can swap older planes for newer ones; the price is loss of time and pilot experience.

You can challenge a friend or direct the computer to play either or both sides.

When Hitler sent his Panzers into Russia, his military purpose was to conquer territory. Yet tanks, for all their fury and firepower, were not enough to achieve this objective. Someone had to go into the woods, the towns to make sure that the territory got taken. That "someone" was infantry. But not just any infantry.

What the German Army needed was infantry that could keep up with the blazing offensive charge of its Panzer tanks. Meet the Panzer Grenadiers: Infantry on halftracks, trucks and armored vehicles with impressive speed and firepower.

PANZER GRENAДИER™ puts you in charge of a regiment of this elite armored infantry. Attached to this special fighting force are mortar, artillery, Panzer IV, Panther, and Tiger units. The computer directs the Russian forces.

Be prepared for some heavy fighting in this exciting, solitary wargame. Five historical scenarios will take you on an explosive tour of the Eastern Front, from the Lutchesa River ('42) and Kursk ('43) to Kirovograd ('44) and Wilkovichken ('45).

BATTLE OF ANTIETAM™ is a grand-tactical simulation of the bloodiest day of the Civil War — September 17, 1862. By sheer luck, Union General McClellan trapped the Confederate troops at Antietam Creek with their backs to the Potomac. Although outnumbered by more than 2 to 1, the Rebels still managed to hold off the Yankee forces and slip away under the cover of darkness.

Now you can seize the opportunity which escaped the inept McClellan — to smash Lee's army and win the war. From 6 am to 5 pm, the day unfolds in detail so real you'll feel like you're playing a miniature game. Each demi-brigade unit is rated for number of men (armed with up to 15 weapon types), morale and fatigue. Combat is resolved down into 200-yard squares with four levels of elevation.

BATTLE OF ANTIETAM contains Beginner, Intermediate and Advanced games to accommodate wargamers of all levels.

During solitary play, the computer can play either or both sides.

SpeedDemon.

HIGH OCTANE APPLE JUICE.

With SpeedDemon® you can turn your mild-mannered Apple® II, II+, or IIe into a supercharged machine, running at up to 3½ times normal speed.

Now imagine what this turbo boost means when you play SSI games:

- Night turns in CARRIER FORCE move by in nothing flat.
- KAMPFGRUPPE's combat phase resolved incredibly fast.
- Almost no waiting for German bombers to reach London in FIGHTER COMMAND.

And the list of accelerated pleasures goes on and on.

At SSI, we are excited about this speed-up card from M.C.T. In fact, our R&D people use the SpeedDemon for development work on Apple games. Some have become so addicted to this "Apple juice" that they refuse to play any games without it.

Because we believe the SpeedDemon will significantly increase your enjoyment of SSI games, we are making it available to you at a special price. Instead of the $249 list price, you can order the SpeedDemon directly from SSI for $179.00.

To order by credit card or by mail, please refer to the inside front cover for more information. The $2.00 S&H charges and the 7% sales tax for California residents apply.

If you love SSI games now, wait till you stick the SpeedDemon in your Apple! You'll love them 3½ times more!

- Wargames
- Sports & General Topic
- Sci-Fi/Fantasy
